At the end of 2018, BAN-PT (Badan Akreditasi Nasional Perguruan Tinggi/College National Accreditation Agency) announced that Doctoral Program in Livestock Science at Faculty of Animal Husbandry Brawijaya University regain accreditation A. The announcement was delivered via Surat Keputusan Nomor 3535/SK/BAN-PT/Akred/D/XII/2018.

Validity period of accreditation BAN-PT for Doctoral Program in Livestock Science Faculty of Animal Husbandry Brawijaya University has ended on February last year. To extend the validity period, the faculty's task force team arranged accreditation document 3A (study program) and 3B (faculty) that will be assessed by assessor both internal and external. Then a site visit is done to synchronize the data in the document and the facts in the field.

Field assessment was carried out by Prof. Vitus Dwi Yulianto (Diponegoro University) and Prof. Zuprizal (Gadjah Mada University) as the assessors on 19 December 2019. This stage is the deciding point, therefore invited lecturers, administration staffs, alumni, stakeholders, and postgraduate students for validation and data verification.

Prof. Suyadi as Dean of Faculty of Animal Husbandry Brawijaya University expressed his gratitude to all parties who have worked hard so that it produces results that are not in vain. Although regained accreditation A, he advised the lecturers and administration staffs to improve quality of teaching and services, either to students, alumni and stakeholders. [dta/Humas UB/trans.
